

Pick One Team 2020 (Rounds 1, 2, and 3)

1. Pick one team to win each week of the regular season. You cannot pick any of the 32 NFL teams more than once during the season. If your team loses, ties, or if you do not submit a pick for any given week you are out of the running. The entire pot will go to the last remaining individual or will be divided evenly among the last remaining players if all exit on a given week. The pot will also be divided evenly among the survivors after the last week of the regular season. This game does not include playoffs and has no tie breakers. There are sheets provided to keep track of your picks throughout the entire season for all rounds since you cannot use any team more than once.
2. Round 1 of the Pick One Team begins on Week 1 of the regular season. Since the fallout from this game is historically fast, we start a 2nd round on Week 4 and a 3rd round on Week 7 of the regular season. Basically, the three rounds are separate games using the same rules but have no relationship to one another.
3. $10.00 per entry per round covers the entire regular season, if you can last that long. You must enter these games the 1st week of the regular season for Round 1, 4th week for Round 2, and 7th week for Round 3. Players are limited to a maximum of two entries per round.
To be eligible for this game, you must turn in your money prior to the start of the round and your pick for each week 30 minutes prior to the start of the first game each week. The deadline on weeks with Thursday, Friday, or Saturday games (Weeks 1 thru 16) is also 30 minutes prior to the start of the first game. The only exception being if you elect not to use one of the optional Thursday night or Friday afternoon games (Weeks 1-11 and 13-16) your picks are due 30 minutes prior to the start of the first weekend game to be eligible. There is no option to skip the 3 Thanksgiving Day games on Week 12 or the Saturday games on weeks 15 and 16 this season. Saturday games and times are still TBD. All picks are due 30 minutes prior to the start of the first Thursday game on week 12 and Saturday games on weeks 15 and 16. If also submitting regular weekly picks online, there is an extra line for your Pick the Winner (Pick 1) entries. Pick the Winner entries are preferred online but can also be accepted by Email or voice mail.
4. Final results and payouts (if applicable) for each week will be available on the following Tuesday. Players can view picks and updates on the website during the weekend games. Updates to the files will be available 1-2 hours after completion of the morning games, afternoon games, Sunday night game, and Monday night game.
